HONORS WON BY MISS MORRILL.

"Miss Jennie Morrill of Mobile, Ala., who is a sister of Mrs. B. H. Abrams, of this city, has recently come into high honor by winning the fellowship offered by the Baltimore Association for the Promotion of the University Education of Women, against competitors from all the universities of the country. No greater honor could be conferred on a southern woman than to be the recipient of this fellowship.

"Miss Morrill has made rapid advances in her chosen work, having graduated last year at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, with honors, being elected a member of the Phi Kappa Psi, which is the honor fraternity of that institution. She likewise won the fellowship in American history, given by Miss Lillian Johnson, now president of the Western college, at Oxford, Ohio, and has, during the past year, been engaged in graduate work at the University of Wisconsin. It was while at the latter institution that the honor conferred upon her by the Baltimore association was received, and it was won on work submitted by the fortunate contestant."

The above from the Atlanta Constitution will be read with interest by the many Pensacola friends and Florida connection of Miss Morrill. But, it is not to Alabama, but to Florida, belongs the honor of claiming Miss Morrill as her daughter. She was born at the Pensacola navy yard and was reared in Milton, Fla. She is the youngest daughter of Capt. William T. Morrill, and has many warm friends and admirers in the city who will be delighted to know of her brilliant success.

Miss Morrill is a niece of Capt. and Mrs. John L. Pinney, of 508 West Gregory street, this city.

MR. REESE'S BAY PARTY, COMPLIMENTARY TO MISS ANNA W. BARNUM.

Mr. Eugene Reese entertained with a charming bay party Tuesday night, complimentary to Miss Anna W. Barnum, the popular "Sweet Singer" of the First Presbyterian choir, who leaves Friday for Chicago to spend the summer.

After a trip around the moonlit bay, they landed at the life saving station, where everything was radiant—a genuine lover's night—and the beach and the breakers were at their best. As usual, everybody's appetite had been sharpened by the salt air, giving a keen relish to the picnic luncheon served on the boat during the evening. On the return they reached the city in time to catch the last cars leaving Palafox wharf.

Mr. Reese's party, beside himself and his attractive honoree, Miss Barnum, consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Clay White, Miss Irene Pritchard, Mr. Dykstra and Miss Beatrice White.

SOCIAL LIFE ON THE BIG BAYOU.

Judge and Mrs. J. C. Richardson arrived Saturday to spend two months as guests of Mrs. Richardson's mother, Mrs. A. Anson.

Mr. DeBardalben and family of Selma, are expected to arrive to-day to be guests at Mrs. Surgis's.

Mr. Cliff Merritt has built three beautiful cottages on Big Bayou, two of which are occupied, one by Dr. Mallory Kenedy and family, one by Mr. Dick Carroll, Mr. Bullock and Mr. Ratrou, who are batching. The other will be occupied by Mr. P. K. Yonge July 1.

CREW OF MANGROVE PRESENT LOVING CUP TO MRS. JOHN A. H. NICKLES.

At high noon on Wednesday the crew of the U. S. S. "Mangrove," presented Mrs. John A. H. Nickles, wife of Commander John A. H. Nickles, U. S. N., with a beautiful "Loving Cup," as expressive of the high esteem in which she is held by those who have had the honor of being on board that vessel with her for the past three years.

Mrs. Nickles will leave the "Mangrove" at Port Tampa on Saturday, June 17 and will not return as her husband, Commander Nickles, is to be promoted and assigned to other duty.

METHODIST PICNIC.

The Sunday School of Palafox street M. E. church will give its annual picnic tomorrow (Friday) at Magnolia Bluff, and all will be carried free on both trains. One train leaves the depot at 9 o'clock Friday morning and another at 1:30 p. m.

JUNE DAY WEDDING OF MISS CRAFT—MR. MILLER.

One of the loveliest day weddings of the season was that of Miss Mabel Craft and Mr. Glenn Wilbur Miller, which took place in Palafox street M. E. church Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock.

The church decorations were growing and blooming plants massed on the altar with ribbons and feathery ferns extending from the chandelier to the front pews where they were held by blue hydrangeas, blue and white prevailing with a touch of blush pink and pale gold, to harmonize with the wedding gowns and flowers, under the tasteful direction of Mrs. F. C. Branner.

Mrs. J. M. Flinn, the organist, played a number of fine selections and those popular singers, Mrs. J. C. Pebley and Mrs. F. C. Branner sang "Forget Me Not," while the assembly was waiting. The bridal procession entered to the music of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin in the following order: The ushers—Mr. John McGuire along the right aisle and Mr. John Kelly along the left aisle, each taking position on that side of the altar.

Mr. Edgar Langford with Miss Frances Swaine along the right aisle. She was gown in pale blue crepe de chene, shirred and ruched most becomingly, wore a large white picture hat, long white gloves and carried white carnations.

Mr. Joe Walsh up the right aisle with Miss Jennie Smith charmingly gown in soft pink silk beautifully shirred and trimmed with lace. She also wore a large white picture hat and white gloves and carried white carnations.

Miss Josephine Philippi, beautiful in a gown of white crepe de chene over silk, with a deep lace bertha and trimmed with shirring and lace panel effect on the skirt. Large white hat, white gloves and white carnations.

Little Miss Agnes Wolfe—daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Wolfe—in a fluffy white chiffon frock and wearing a big white chiffon hat, white lace hose and white slippers. She was exquisitely pretty and bore the wedding ring on a dainty white silk cushion made of a piece of the bridal gown and fluffy with lace and white satin ribbon that suspended the cushion round her neck.

The shirred top of the cushion formed a little bowl in the center in which the ring rested.

The fair bride along the left aisle leaning on the arm of her father who gave her away. Her bridal robe was a beautiful creation of crushed ivory white taffeta silk elaborately trimmed with the most fetching combination of headed shirrings, box pleats and hand embroidery. She too wore a large white picture hat with a long white plume extending from the right side around on the brim and drooping over her left shoulder in a manner most becoming to the pretty wearer.

Her only ornament was a beautiful pearl and diamond brooch, gift of the groom that fastened the soft high collar of her gown.

The groom and his best man, Mr. Arthur Johnson, cousin of the bride, people's happiness were present, Mrs. them at the altar where the pastor, Rev. B. C. Glenn, repeated the beautiful ceremony that united the happy young people.

The groom is a well known and highly esteemed young man connected with the L. & N. mechanical department while the bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Craft, of Gouling, with a host of relatives in Tampa and South Florida.

The parents, happy in the young people's happiness were present, Mrs. Craft in a lovely black crepe de Chine over silk and Mrs. Miller in handsome black taffeta.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller left on the noon train, going first to Mobile, Ill., to visit the groom's relatives and then to St. Louis, Chicago and other points in Illinois and Indiana.

The bride's going-away gown was a tan and brown mixed mohair jacket suit with brown waist and deep cream lace in the sleeves. Her hat was a pretty affair of brown silk braid with tulle and roses and brown and tan ornaments.

They will return and be at home to friends after July 16, in their own home, a pretty cottage on La Rue which the groom recently purchased and will have remodeled during their absence.

They received many beautiful and costly presents, including cut glass and silver many coming from South Florida, where the bride is widely known.

Mr. Miller's best man, Mr. Arthur Johnson, and the ushers, Mr. Jack

The Journal's Daily Fashion Feature

A RIBBON STRAPPED BLOUSE.

Dainty little separate blouses to be worn with either the short wooltex skirt of the morning or with the dressier ones of silk or velvet for the afternoon take up much of the dressmaker's time and attention just now. The illustration offers a good model. There is a boned and fitted lining, over which a net lace with a simple but well-covered design is fitted, a layer of chiffon interposed between the face and lining, to soften the effect. The fastening is in the back, which is drawn down snugly to the belt, and the fronts are just eased in at the waistline, there being no pinching or bagging over. The sleeve is a full puff with deep mitaine cuff, finished with a lace trim. The ribbons are posed in brettele fashion, the pointed ends passing through silk crocheted rings below the bust, and the ends caught together in a bow either side of the waistline. The sleeve is similarly decorated.

McGuire and Mr. John Kelly, presented a chest of silver table ware, while his associates in the L. & N. shops have a handsome dining table, chairs and a dinner set of Haviland china awaiting their return.

When the bride at the train threw her bouquet unexpectedly it fell plumb into the arms of Miss Ellie Swaine.

Much merriment was created by a kiss which Mr. Edgar Langford came near getting from the bride under false pretenses in the general rush of "Goodbyes."

THE BEST TONIC

When the system gets debilitated and in a run-down condition it needs a tonic and there has never been one discovered that is the equal of S. S. S. It is especially adapted for a systemic remedy, because it contains no strong minerals to derange the stomach and digestion, and affect the liver and bowels. It is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks selected for their purifying and healing qualities, and possesses just the properties that are needed to restore to the body strong robust health. When the blood becomes impure and clogged with waste matters and poisons the body does not receive sufficient nourishment and suffers from debility, weakness, sleeplessness, nervousness, loss of appetite, bad digestion and many other disagreeable symptoms of a disordered blood circulation, and if it is not corrected some form of malignant fever or other dangerous disorder will follow. S. S. S. builds up the broken down constitution, clears the blood of all poisons and impurities and makes it strong and healthy. The nerves are restored to a calm restful state, refreshing sleep is had again, the appetite returns and the whole system is toned up by this great remedy. S. S. S. is a blood purifier and tonic and acts promptly in this run-down depleted condition of the system. Book on the blood and medical advice furnished by our physicians, without charge.

I have used your S. S. S. and found it to be an excellent tonic to build up the general health and give tone and strength to the system. I have used other things highly recommended, but S. S. S. did me more good than everything else combined. As to its tonic properties it gives a splendid appetite, refreshing sleep, and the system undergoes a general building up under its invigorating influence. 548 Woodland Ave., Warren, O.
